

Loyola upsets an old rival, Mt. St. Mary's, 82-76, to gain undisputed possession of first place in the Mason-Dixon Conference. Above are; Angelo (31), Stait (jumping) and McCullough (46).

Loyola Gains M-D Conference Lead

by Bernard A. Rackmales

Lefty Reitz's halftime talk—to the referees—was a factor in Loyola's 82-76 basketball win here January 22 over Mt. St. Mary's, according to Mount Coach Jim Phelan, who watched his defending M-D champions blow a 47-31 halftime hodge. The traditional battle, watched by the first sellout crowd here for a league game in nine years, was the Saints' lone loss in nine conference tests and left the unbeaten Greyhounds atop the Mason-Dixon standings.

"Lefty gave the officials heck at the half, and I feel like giving them heck now," wailed Phelan during an exclusive Greyhound interview. He was referring to the seven fouls called against the Mounts in the final four minutes.

Reflecting, Phelan explained, "Actually, our boys simply choked in the clutch. But maybe we'll try giving the refs heck sometime."

Rudo Denies Charge

Charley Rudo, chief official, denied the report. "Lefty" asked one question about a play coming up, but nothing else was said in any way, shape or form."

The Loyola coach stated that he had asked for a clarification of the lane rule on throw-ins.

The fans had yelled at the referees during the first half for calling assorted infractions against Loyola while being indifferent to St. Mary's alleged bullying and extra-steps. Meanwhile, the visitors had come from a 5-3 deficit to knot the count at 8-8. Then, chiefly on 5'7" Eddie Bals' quick overhead two-handers, they burst to an 18-8 spread before Jack Benzing broke through their keyhole defense.

Allenbaugh Nets Twenty

After Loyola caught the Mounts at 64-64 on ten points by Jerry Komin, overhead sets by Harp Fitzgerald and Jim Allenbaugh—Loyola's top scorer with twenty points—and finally a running push shot from behind the foul circle by Gene Grimes, Mt. St. Mary's offensive and defensive games fell apart. The officials accented them of traveling, charging and bumping as the Mounts fought to short-circuit the passing network of Allenbaugh, Grimes and Bill Brown.

This trio and Fitzgerald sparked the Hounds to an 80-67 climax (a twenty-nine-point second-half advantage) before Jack Sullivan—who hooped twenty-eight points for the night—tapped in two shots.

Charlie McCullough scored sixteen of Loyola's thirty-one points in the first half. In the second stanza he controlled both boards, with Allenbaugh, although netting only one free-throw offensively.

Dramatic Club Presents Play, Costume Dance

The Emperor's Doll will make her appearance in Cohn Hall Friday, February 18. This second major production of the Mask and Rapier Society will commence at 8:30, and will last about thirty-five minutes.

Following the play, the members of the Dramatic Society will be hosts at the Mardi-Gras Dance.

Kitty Kelly As Doll

In the title role will be Kitty Kelly from Mt. St. Agnes. John Kuhn will be seen as Matsuri, the doll-maker. Ray Gaeng, a familiar name in Loyola dramatics, and Bob Fitzsimmons will take other leading male parts.

Filling the supporting roles will be Jim Quimper, Dan Mackey, Al Field, Ray Penn, Boh Dunn, Bob Jump, Bill McKenna, Jim Lombardi, John Kenny, Jerry Leahy, Ferd Mainolfi and Lee Russo.

Kabuki Style

The play is set in Japan, and concerns a doll-maker who is commissioned by the Emperor to fashion a life-size doll. When the job is completed, the doll pertly comes to life. Being unable to resist her, Matsuri permits himself to fall in love with his creation, much to the dissatisfaction of the Emperor.

Adhering to Kabuki tradition, the play will employ a very limited amount of scenery. Instead, most of the props and make-up will be left to the imagination of the audience.

Costume Dance

The Mardi-Gras Dance will round out the night's activities. Apropos of the season, costumes will be in vogue for the dance. Members of Mask and Rapier will be required to wear costumes, and everyone is urged, though not compelled, to supplement the motif by masquerading.

The cost for the evening's entertainment will be two dollars per couple.

One-Act Play Contest

On February 21, The Emperor's Doll will be presented as Loyola's entry in a one-act play contest at Georgetown. Competing against Loyola will be Scranton, St. Joseph's of Philadelphia and Georgetown. The contestants will vie for the right to represent the Maryland area in the regional finals at Fordham.

Block L Sponsoring Father-Son Dinner

The Block L Club will sponsor the third annual Father-Son Banquet in Cohn Hall Tuesday, February 15, at 6:00 p.m. On the same evening the Greyhounds will meet St. Peter's College in a basketball game.

The ticket price of $4.30 will admit both father and son to the banquet and the game. The affair, however, is not limited to fathers and their sons. Others will be able to come to the banquet by buying one ticket for $2.00. Game admission will then be fifty cents.

The Father-Son Banquet was inaugurated just two years ago by the Block L in order to foster a closer father-son relationship and to provide an evening's entertainment that can be enjoyed and remembered by young and old alike.

The two previous banquets have been most successful, highlighting the club's successful activities for the year.

Block L prexy Bill Phillips has pointed out that plenty of planning and hard work has been put into the affair, and he hopes that it will be even more successful than last year's.

Game to Follow Dinner

Following the dinner, the game with St. Peter's College promises to be a lively affair. St. Peter's is highly regarded in the Jersey area and, in their recent tilt with Mt. St. Mary's, they lost by only five points.

Bill Phillips reports that arrangements have been made to accommodate four hundred persons.

ROTC Commander Made Full Colonel

Two shining eagles have been gracing the shoulders of the former Lt. Col. Charles A. Minot since January 31, when he was promoted to the rank of full Colonel.

The rank is only temporary in the Army's files but normally it becomes permanent after a short length of time. It is just a matter of form as far as the Army is concerned.

The promotion carries with it an appropriate increase in salary but Colonel Minot says that he will enjoy paying the extra income tax.

Benefit Hop Set For Jesuit Fund

The Jamshedpur Jamboree will be held Friday, February 11, at 8:30 p.m. at the Alcazar. The purpose of the Jamboree is to raise funds for the Jesuit Mission of the Maryland Province in Jamshedpur, India.

Mrs. Clement Petrik, dance chairman, would particularly like to see Loyola College represented at the dance. Tickets are $1.25 per person.

The Loyola College Quartet has been invited to take part in the entertainment which will precede the dance. General chairman of the Jamboree is Mrs. Harry Zerner.

Classes Prepare To End Year In Style

Senior events for the coming half are beginning to take shape. The Senior Prom will be held at the Country Club of Maryland on April 23.

Senior Week will begin on Sunday, May 30, with a Communion Breakfast for the graduates and their parents. This will be followed by a Shore Party and a Senior Dance later in the week. After this there will be a banquet at the Belvedere and a Faculty-Senior Reception. Senior week events will come to a close on Graduation Day, June 5.

Plans for the Junior Prom have almost been completed. The Prom will be held on Friday, April 22, at Friendship Airport. Music will be provided by Carl Hamilton.

Vice-president Wayne White announced that a class party will be held later in the year. White also announced that an executive meeting of the Junior Class was held this week to try to push the Yearbook drive.

Joe Emerson, president of the Sophomore Class, plans a class party later in the year. He also said that important changes are going to take place in the Sophomore Class in the near future. The executive committee will be revamped. Six new men have been appointed, two from each of the three main sections of the class: liberal arts, social science and science.

A class meeting was held earlier this week to push the Yearbook drive. Ad and patron blanks were passed out.

A meeting of the Freshman Class officers was held during the post-exam holidays. Plans for a class party were begun.

The officers are undertaking a campaign to push all activities. Immediate projects are going to be the yearbook and basketball attendance.

Durkan Sets YB Deadline

Jim Durkan, Editor of the 1955 edition of the Evergreen Annual, expects to have all write-ups except those dealing with spring sports completed by March 1.

All individual senior and underclass group pictures have been taken and the book will soon be sent to the Garamond Press, the local firm which is handling the account.

Ads and patrons may still be turned in. A commission of ten percent will be paid for all ads received. Persons who bring in sponsors or patrons which total ten or more dollars will be eligible for a five percent commission. Commissions may be used as payment for the yearbook.

Seniors Must Get Ads

At a meeting of the Senior Class on January 20, all seniors were given patron and ad blanks. Each member of the class will be responsible for turning in $20.00 worth of ads or making up the difference in cash to pay for the yearbook. This was necessary because of the poor financial condition of the book.

Underclassmen were also reminded that the yearbook is theirs, and were asked to assist the seniors in making the coming Evergreen a financial success.

IRC Attending Conferences At Three Colleges

The Loyola I.R.C. has been chosen to represent Syria in the Model United Nations Assembly at the University of Pennsylvania from April 3 to 5. James B. O'Hara will be in charge of one of the four most important committees at that convocation, the Ad Hoc Committee on Charter Review and Implementation, whose job it is to improve the present U.N. Charter.

Doctor Harry Kirwin, Faculty Moderator, will attend all these outings.

Before the end of the semester the I.R.C. intends to have a talk by an official of the State Department and a visit to the Syrian Embassy.

I.R.C. Excursions

Sammel Ady, president of the International Relations Club, has announced a program of I.R.C. excursions, in addition to the regular meetings scheduled to deal with "East-West Cleavage as Manifested in Asia."

At Notre Dame of Maryland, on February 5, Dan Mackey spoke to the Conference on South-East Asia in reference to the history of that area.

Two I.R.C. members are to attend the Conference on the Far East at Saint Peter's College in Jersey City, New Jersey, on February 26.

Those named to attend the meetings in Philadelphia and in Jersey City will be selected shortly.

AIA Names May To Membership

Mr. Joseph S. May, Jr., was recently elected a member of the American Institute of Accountants. Members of the Institute are selected for experience and background in accountancy.

Mr. May is Assistant Professor of Mathematics, Assistant Treasurer and Bursar for the college. A member of the faculty since 1943, he is also a graduate of Loyola College. He obtained his C.P.A. certificate two years ago and is a member of the Maryland Association of C.P.A.'s.

Panzer Sodality Perfect; Phillips TV Star, Athlete

● PANZER

If you want to become a good horseshoe pitcher and pool shark, try eating pickles. Many suspect that this has been the secret of senior George Panzer's success in these sports.

A native of Baltimore, George received his early education at St. Catherine's and at Mt. St. Joe, where he took the straight academic course. Although he is a fine clarinetist and played that instrument for the St. Joe band, George seems to have given up this avocation. "I didn't want to grow up to be like Artie Shaw," says he. Summer vacation found George trying out various jobs in his father's pickle factory. He claims it soured him on factory work, however. At Evergreen, chemistry became his vocation, and he plans to do graduate work in that field.

Sodality Leader

Last spring he was elected president of the Senior Sodality. In virtue of that office he attended the 1954 Summer School of Catholic Action at Fordham U. He is also one of the leading members of the College Glee Club. This latter activity serves to satisfy somewhat his general interest in music and show business.

George was recently crowned undisputed Horseshoe Champion. He admits that, like most champions, he gets in some off-season practice. His performance with a pool cue not long ago was reported to have left some of the steadies at this game rather stunned and inferiorated.

Teaching chemistry is his chosen life work. But, it is hardly probable that this will constitute the "be-all and the end-all" of his existence. Remember, the wartless and witless pickle has yet to be developed.

● PHILLIPS

Of the many Loyola students who have tried their hands at some form of show business, none can boast so large an audience as Bill

Phillips. Not long ago, he let the whole United States know, via TV, that basketball pants and his hips do not get along very well. On a lesser scale, Bill has been seen on local TV, drinking (of all things) milk.

Bill came to Loyola from Poly where he was a three-sport man, earning letters for football, basketball and baseball.

Coaches Freshmen

He has continued to be active in sports at Evergreen, although he is somewhat hampered by a bad knee. He was forced to leave the freshman basketball squad during the 1952-53 season because of this. Nevertheless, the last two springs have found him a regular on the Greyhound lacrosse team.

Last year, Bill took up coaching the freshman cagers and turned out a team which won fourteen of sixteen games, and the unofficial Conference Championship. In one game they hit the hoops for a grand total of 118 points.

The best indication of how the student body feels about Bill is seen in his election as president of the Block L Club in a school-wide contest. Bill's enthusiasm and ability, shown during his first semester in office, prove the choice a good one.

Personalized Entertainment

One of the highlights of Bill's career came at the Harvest Moon Ball in 1953. When the orchestra was late, Bill provided entertainment for the 250 couples present.

A member of the Marine Corps Reserve, Bill will probably be called to active duty after his graduation. All are sure that he will make Marine life more enjoyable—that is if one doesn't mind cigar smoke.

Dixie Combo Formed To Smother Mountain Music

In answer to the shaggy tunes of the Mt. St. Mary's dixieland band, Loyola men have formed their own dixieland band.

This large combo (seven pieces) claims a horn section of Kenny Lee, John Yenger and maestro Mainolfi. Ed Rankin and Charley Krause donate the string counterpoint and rhythm, while stylist John Beck counts the ivories. Brian Varacalle is drummer, leaving Pat McDonough tooting his horn as publicity manager.

CLOTHES FOR THE COLLEGE MAN

Liberitches Berated By Jealous Virtuoso

by Bob Pula

I am prepared to do battle, should the need arise, with all the women of America. Not all of them actually, I know at least ten women who resist the mass of their sisters and machine-gun their television sets whenever his shadow appears. Not everybody is of the religious persuasion whose clarion call is "Give me Liberace, or give me death!" Some still would answer with Bach's Come Sweet Death.

It is not my intent to object to Wladzin on the grounds of physical characteristics. I'll admit that his low-slung smile, sub-cutaneous dimples and Adolph's Beauty Shop coiffure (prepared while Adolph was held incommunicado by Helena Rubinstein) leave me cold. But they are matters more laughable than tragic. They should be taken no more seriously than the antics of Georgious George (no relative).

This Is An Artist?

However, the Wladziophiles (Liberitches) are wont, when John Crosby isn't looking, to classify their Steinway Valentino as a pianist. By this they mean not only that he plays the piano; they have the temerity to acclaim him an artist. They rank him with artists of the stature of Paderewski, Rubinstein, Horowitz, Soloman, Serkin and, of course, Malcuzynski!

The usual retort one receives from a Liberace adherent, if one is so bold as to question the propriety of his playing the "Minute Waltz" with stop-watch obligato, is that grand old Americanism: "He's makin' money, ain't he?"

Indeed he is. So is Mr. Big. So did Al Capone. So did the Barbary Pirates. Or, to make the analogy less harsh and more appropriate, so is Hoagy Carmichael. Mr. Carmichael, however, has the honesty to protest whenever one of his fans goes berserk and compares him to Caruso and Ezio Pinza.

Answer From A Critic

Another rejoinder, dealt devastatingly (it is believed) to people who also play the piano (yours truly included) is: "Can YOU play like that?" No, thank you, I can't. I do not possess the manual dexterity of Mr. Liberace. How this disqualifies me as a critic, I am unable to say. My ears are still intact (miraculously, perhaps) and my brain continues to function.

When these two faculties operate simultaneously during a Liberace performance, I am overwhelmed by a feeling of gross unhappiness. I feel that I am attending an evil musical manifestation at some tonal Hades called Carnegie Hall.

I hear polonaises played as though Chopin had never heard of Catherine the Great. I hear Beethoven played as through the first syllable of his name were spelled B-E-A-T. I hear music and there's someone there. Only it's not music (rumor has it that Liberace is the composer of "Shake, Rattle and Roll"), and I wish that he weren't there.

Face It, Friends

Oh, Heavens! I've allowed myself to become rather serious. Relax friends. Gracious me, I don't want to separate you from your Walter-ego. I just want to liberate you from the oppression of illusion. You're being had.

Be accurate. Call him clown.

Paul Burke and Larry Donegan, respective captains of the wrestling and swimming teams, prep for law school.

Md. Law School Beckons To Mat, Swim Captains

Larry Donegan and Paul Burke conclude four years of varsity swimming and wrestling for Loyola this month, but both may be classmates for another four years.

Donegan, captain of the tank team, and Burke, grappling captain, are both political science majors intending to enter the University of Maryland Law School this fall.

Burke is the leader of the bone-benders this season, although he wrestled only one match last year. He sustained a neck injury in the Catholic University opener and remained inactive the rest of the season.

Tough Opposition

However, lack of experience has never hampered this 145-pound mite. Coming from Calvert Hall, which has no wrestling team, Burke won half his matches in his first two years at Evergreen.

Donegan is the 440-yard Mason-Dixon champion and runner-up in the 220-yard distance. He was undefeated last season in the 440 against outside competition, losing only to teammate Jimmy Bracken.

Swam At Loyola High

Unlike Burke, Donegan has had both high school and club experience. He was a consistent 200-yard free-style winner for the City College MSA champions. He churned his fastest time, however, in a losing effort at the National High School Championships at Princeton.

Hounds To Face Hopkins At Homewood Tomorrow

Loyola risks its unbeaten league record at Homewood tomorrow night at 8:30 against neighborhood rival, Johns Hopkins; and then will host Jack Bergen's Washington College quint Saturday night in the Evergreen gym.

Hopkins is led by Bob Taylor, averaging twenty points per game; Jay Yakubisin, 14.8; and Bill Civiletti, 14.1.

Charlie McCullough, swishing at 25.1 will be out to maintain his first-place edge over runner-up Bergen in the M-D individual scoring race in Saturday's return test.

Revenge Game

The Hounds beat Washington 65-60 at Chestertown in January, holding Bergen under twenty-points for the first time this season. He scored seventeen to McCullough's eighteen. The game was marred by a fight between 6'4" Jim Staiti and 6'2" Evvie Josephs.

St. Peter's will be here Tuesday night, and Western Maryland on Thursday. Saturday, February 19, Loyola will travel to Emmitsburg and play Mt. St. Mary's.

McCullough stayed ahead of fourth-place Dave Foltz of Roanoke in the individual scoring race by potting twenty points to Foltz's eighteen when Loyola drubbed the Maroon, 82-69, here February 4. Jim Allenbaugh scored sixteen, Harp Fitzgerald, fifteen and Bill Brown, twelve.

Howley Hits Twelve

Although Charlie McCullough hooped twenty-nine points, Loyola lost a 73-63 tilt in Buffalo on January 29 to Canisius College. Waide Howley was the only other Greyhound to hit double figures, with twelve. Jim Allenbaugh ringed eight; Bill Brown, six; Jim Staiti, five; Jack Benzing, two; and Bob Cucuel, one.

On January 27, the Greyhounds of Loyola downed a surprisingly strong American U. team, 85-73, in overtime to retain first place. Oddly enough, the Hounds had to come from behind to knot the score at the end of regulation time. However, once the overtime had begun, they had no trouble in rampaging over the boys from Washington.

McCullough Leads Hounds

Charlie McCullough again was a big factor in the victory, scoring thirty-three points. Jim Allenbaugh, whose average has been steadily improving, racked up twenty points. Two other Loyola men also hit double figures, Jim Staiti and Gene Grimes both had twelve.

Donegan, Medley, Wheeler Triumph: White Hits Board

Larry Donegan, Elmer Medley and Dick Wheeler were Loyola's only winners as the swimming team lost 51-33 here February 2, against Gustavus Adolphus, runners-up in the Minnesota Intercollegiate Swimming Conference.

Diver Wayne White hit the board coming down from a full gainer, but stayed in the meet, finishing third behind GAC's Dave Loomer, 36.2-35. White didn't score on the fall but tallied twelve points on his next effort, a back-jackknife, to applause from the crowded stands and both teams.

Medley Wins

Medley, sophomore Mason-Dixon champion, won the diving with 50.1. His first two plunges scored twenty and nineteen points, respectively.

In the meet's closest and most thrilling race, Larry Donegan, another M-D titlist, was matched stroke for stroke by Bob Larson for seventeen laps in the 440-yard free-style. Donegan picked up two strokes on the last turn and streaked under the wire, ahead by four feet.

Shepherd Here Next

Swimming his first season for Loyola, senior Dick Wheeler captured the 50-yard dash in twenty-six seconds.

The team will met Dickinson at Hershey, Pennsylvania, Saturday. Shepherd will invade the local tank Thursday, February 17.

Sophs Set Record, Score 88-28 Win

Beginning the new intramural basketball season with a bang, the Olympians scored eighty-eight points in defeating the Draft Dodgers by a score of 88-28. This unofficially broke the intramural single game scoring mark.

The Olympians exhibited a well-balanced attack which stamped them as one of the best teams in the league. Don Trinite led the winners with 21 points. After this, came Dave Meinert with 20 and Dick Blackshire with 15. Jim Donohue was high for the losers with 13 points.

Clowns Lose

In a close, well played game, the Rinky-Dinks downed the Clowns by a score of 39-29. Tom Sullivan, ex-freshman player, and Bill McKenna paced the surprisingly strong freshman squad. Tom Coyle led all point-getters with 18 counters for the losing team. In another game played the Five Fiascos downed the Regimentals 30-28. Dave Bryan, Dick Holz and Gene Settler were the big guns for the winners while Bill Weglein and John Votta paced the losers.

GREYHOUND SPORTS

by Jim Cole, Sports Editor

Tomorrow night Loyola's fighting Greyhounds will battle the Jays of Hopkins University at Homewood. This game will take the aspect of a revenge match, since Hopkins downed Loyola's high flying Greyhounds last year on this same court. They also extended Loyola all the way in the semi-finals of the Mason-Dixon Tournament before bowing by one point on Joel Hittleman's last-second field goal. Hopkins has been pointing to the Loyola game and unless we students support our team, they may very well be upset.

Mt. St. Mary's Game

Ever since the beginning of the school year, all who have been in contact with any of the men from Mt. St. Mary's have been hearing how they would tear apart Loyola's basketball team. On trying to explain that Loyola, too, has a good team, all that you would hear would be, "Wait until January 22." Well, January 22 has now long since passed, and the former league leaders have been defeated. One now hears no more cries from the Mount.

It was a tremendous team victory. Charlie McCullough, Jim Allenbaugh, Harp Fitzgerald, Jerry Komin, Bill Brown, Gene Grimes, in fact the whole team, played brilliantly. After the game, Bob Cucuel, team captain, said, "The school support helped a lot. This was the first time that the team had real spark." On the other side, Jack Sullivan, who is, from this writer's view, one of the best basketball players in the state, said, "We lost, that's all. They're a good team; McCullough's a good boy." Loyola and Mt. St. Mary's will meet again February 19 at Emmitsburg.

Intramural Basketball

As in intramural football, the team favored in the basketball league will be the defending champions, the junior Streaks. Paced by Big Jim Young, Frank Dickson, Paul Buckmaster, Fred Walters and Paul Feild, who play outside basketball for the Department of Recreation, the Streaks again rank as the team to beat. Giving them close competition will be the sophomore Olympians, who have, among others, Jim Vaeth and Dave Meinert on their roster. The senior Rambling Rebels, and the junior Regimentals are also highly regarded. Some of the standouts on the former are Bill Sturm, Bob Parent and Joe Judge, while the latter team is paced by Bill Weglein and John Votta.

Father-Son Banquet

On Tuesday, February 15, Loyola's Block L Club will hold its annual Father-Son Banquet. Immediately following will be the Loyola-St. Peter's basketball game. Tickets are $4.30 for both the Banquet and the game and may be purchased in the book store. If you want to treat yourself and your father to an interesting evening, attend this banquet.

Frosh Trip Mounts In Upset; To End Campaign Next Week

Three home games following tomorrow night's 7:30 encounter at Johns Hopkins will end the freshman basketball season. Naval Prep leads the invasion Saturday night, prior to the Washington varsity test. Mt. St. Joe, in a return bout, will be here Tuesday; and Western Maryland will go after its second win over Loyola next Thursday, February 17.

Hopkins' pacesetter is a former All-Maryland selection, Jerry Gottlieb, from City College. The six-foot jump-shot artist is averaging seventeen points per game for the Jays.

"Like Varsity, like Freshman" was the theme here January 22 as the Frosh upset Mt. St. Mary's, 67-58, on Denny McGuire's eighteen points in the second half, after trailing 9-1 early in the game. It was the Pups' second win in seven starts and gave the "Bumps" a four and three log.

With the Hounds holding a slim 51-48 edge at the third quarter, McGuire, who totalled twenty-six points, sank twelve foul shots, controlled both backboards and iced the game by sinking six-for-six from the foul stripe. It was his second game following an appendectomy.
